Composition Requirements

The following composition requirements must be met or the application may be disqualified. Manuscripts of disqualified compositions will not be returned.

- A composition must have a title.
- The performance time of the composition must be no longer than seven minutes.
- The composition manuscript must be a fully realized score, completely notated by the composer. The manuscript must be in the form of a computer printout or handwritten.
- The name of the student-composer or teacher must not appear on the score. No change may be made to the manuscript once it has been submitted.
- A composition that includes copyrighted text must be accompanied by a written statement from the copyright holder giving permission to use the text. If the text is in the public domain, a statement signed by the teacher and student indicating this fact must accompany the entry.

Although it is not required, a composer may include a CD or DVD performance of the composition with the application.
